

CHESSE & DOMINO'S 2012 NEWSLETTER

We started the year learning about this cold white stuff. It was quite fun for a while, but very brrrr... – luckily it soon disappeared and the grass came back

Chess: I auditioned for 'Puss in Boots'

Even though we are often busy sleeping, there was always time for hugs in the garden.

We had a pleasant holiday for a couple of weeks at the 'Rabbit Ritz' in August – there wasn't much sight-seeing to do, but we had plenty of food and good company

Dom: I was so pleased when we went home that I stayed in every evening for a week!

Enjoying our garden after our holiday away.

Chess: Domino was soon back in the neighbour's house but I

Chess: I helped wrap the presents

They put a tree in the house which had sparkly things all over it. We liked pulling them down and rolling them along the floor

Happy Christmas!
